REVISED TERMS OF REFERENCE
SENIOR INTERAGENCY GROUP ON
THE TRANSFER OF STRATEGIC TECHNOLOGY

August 6, 1982

I. Background

Continued access by the Soviet Union, its allies, and other potential adversaries of the United States to advanced Western technology is a matter of great concern to this Administration. Overt and covert Soviet acquisition, both in the U.S. and abroad, of sophisticated equipment and know-how has significantly enhanced its military production capabilities and military power. The organization, scope, and tempo of U.S. Government efforts to stem this flow, though recently increased, is fragmented and insufficient in relation to the magnitude of the problem. The Administration needs a central interagency coordinating mechanism in order to maximize its effectiveness in countering this threat.

II. Senior Interagency Group on the Transfer of Strategic Technology

A. The objectives of this group will be:

1. to serve as a senior policy forum at the Under Secretary level in the U.S. Government's efforts to inhibit acquisition of militarily-relevant
